What's Near By

The Quarrymans Inn is a traditional Cornish Inn (20 yards) serving excellent cuisine.

There is a large Tesco supermarket on the main road adjacent to the petrol filling station 0.5 miles away.

Wadebridge (1 mile) is a pretty, bustling historical market town with a good variety of shops, newsagents, launderette, traditional pubs, restaurants, Fish & Chips, Chinese/Indian takeaways and a cinema.

Wadebridge also has banks, doctor's surgery, dentists, chemists, vets surgery, tyre garage and a leisure center with indoor swimming pool. Nearest Hospital is at Bodmin (6 miles).

The picturesque village of Padstow (6 miles) has many interesting shops, pubs, restaurants and cafes for eating. There is a ferry, which carries passengers only from Padstow to Rock and back.

The Seafood restaurant in Padstow run by Rick Stein is one of the best in the country but you will need to book.

The lane at the rear of the car park leads down to the Estuary and also the Camel Trail, which is popular with cyclists and walkers.

The Camel trail cycleway, which is a 21 mile former railway line, that runs from Bodmin to Padstow.

You can hire bikes in Padstow and Wadebridge and cycle from Padstow to Wadebridge to Bodmin.

There are many superb sandy beaches nearby such as Harlyn Bay and Constantine Bay, dogs also allowed all year.

Golf courses of Trevoise and St Endoc are also close by.

Other nearby attractions include: The Eden Project, Newquay Zoo, Blue Reef Aquarium (Newquay), The Tate (St Ives), The Lost Gardens of Heligan, St Michael's Mount and Tintagel Castle.

Squirrel Cottage gives the perfect base from which to explore the natural beauty of the area, its stunning coastline, sandy beaches, rugged moor land and other areas of Cornwall.

Have a good holiday.....
